Berkeley Signs P&V Solutions as Mexican Distributor

METUCHEN, New Jersey. – April 21, 2009 -- Berkeley Varitronics Systems, Inc. appoints P&V Solutions of Mexico as exclusive Mexican distributor for their entire wireless product line.

“Berkeley’s propagation analysis equipment business continues to grow throughout Mexico as GSM and WiMAX developments advance. To address this recent growth in customer base, we partnered with P&V Solutions. P&V Solutions understands the importance of radio frequency measurement and drive studies. They aggressively sell to the carriers throughout Mexico and therefore can provide the local support and service that our customers need, stated Scott N. Schober, Berkeley Varitronics Systems’ President/CEO”. P&V Solutions will be working through our South American/Latin American Sales Manager, Corinne Jaracz.

Punctuality & Valuable Solutions Inc. of C.V. (P & V Solutions) is a Mexican company that provides distribution and representation of the Latin American market communications, a full range of solutions components, test equipment and measurement procedures for the sale and rental, as well as a variety of online services engineering.
